ABOUT US

Pickups Limited began in April, 1968 as the result of an ad placed in the Penny Saver. Our Orange County Chapter is the oldest and currently the largest of 6 Chapters found throughout Southern California, with membership limited to 1948-83 Ford commercial vehicles. We are an active non-profit organization. Each June we host the largest all Ford truck show in the Western United States, the F-100 Western Nationals while every January we produce Jeff's Fun Run, a run throughout the car culture of LA and Orange Counties. Our business meetings are on the second Thursday of each month at Ken Grody Ford in Buena Park (info below) and we usually plan one group outing each month. Join us for dinner before the meeting at Portillo's in Buena Park (8390 La Palma Ave.) at 5:00pm.

Check the flip side of this flyer for a sample of Pickups Limited's Orange County Chapter events.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

- Do I have to own a truck to join? To be a full member, yes but it can be a work in progress. Truck ownership is not required to be an associate member.
- Do I have to be a member to participate in Club events? Not at all! Non members are welcome at most events.
- How can I join Pickups Limited? We do have a probationary period for all new members consists of attending at least three (3) regularly scheduled meetings and two (2) outings within a three month period.
- I would like to join but I live out of the area and am not able to attend many meetings or events. You may qualify to be an associate member.
